Terms of business

We are a member of the National Association of Funeral Directors and subscribe to its current Code of Practice, a copy of which is available upon request. We aim to act in a professional manner and provide a courteous, sensitive and dignified service to you..

1. Estimates and Expenses

Our estimate is an indication of the charges likely to be incurred on the basis of the information and details we know at the date of estimate. While we make every effort to ensure the accuracy of the estimate, the charges are liable to alteration particularly where third parties change their rates or charges.

We may not know the amount of third party charges in advance of the funeral, however, we will give you a best estimate of such charges on the written estimate. The actual amount of the charges will be detailed and shown in the final account.

If you amend your instructions we may need to make an extra charge in accordance with prices published in our current price list.

We will add VAT to our charges where applicable, and at the rate applicable when we prepare the invoice.

2. Payment Arrangements

The funeral account is due for payment within thirty days from the date of the invoice. A discount of 5% may be deducted from the funeral directors charges if the account is settled within this period (with the exception of a basic funeral, direct or witnessed cremation).

3. Indemnity

You are to indemnify us in full and hold us harmless from all expenses and liabilities we may incur (directly or indirectly including financing costs and including legal costs on a full indemnity basis) following any breach by you of any of your obligations under these Terms.

This means that you are liable to us for losses we incur because you do not comply with these Terms; for example, if we instruct debt collection agents we may also recover the fees we incur from you. Further details regarding these fees are available on request. We may claim those losses from you at any time and, if we have to take legal action, we will ask the Court to make you pay our legal costs.

4. Data Protection

We treat all information confidentially and in line with UK Data Protection laws. We will never sell information collected to third parties for marketing purposes. If you would like further information on how we handle your personal information please request a copy of our Privacy Policy or refer to www.humphrisfunerals.co.uk.

5. Child Road Safety

Any child under the age of three years can travel in one of our vehicles only if you provide the appropriate child seat.

6. Termination

We reserve the right to terminate our services if you fail to honour your obligations under these Terms. We are under no obligation to accept your termination until we receive your instruction in writing.

If you terminate your instructions or if we decide to terminate our services, you will be invoiced for all third party charges which we have paid or are committed to.

7. Conduct

The National Association of Funeral Directors' Code of Practice requires that we provide a high quality service in all aspects. If, however, you have any questions or concerns about the service we provide to you, please raise them in the first instance with Matthew Humphris. If that does not resolve the problem to your satisfaction then please contact NAFD Resolve at 618 Warwick Road, Solihull, West Midlands B91 1AA, which provides independent conciliation and arbitration through the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

All dates and times provided on the estimate cannot be guaranteed until final bookings are made and confirmed. Although we endeavour to provide a prompt and efficient service for you, there may be instances where, because of circumstances beyond our control, we are unable to fulfil our obligations to you on the date or time specified. Where this is the case we will attempt to contact you in advance, using the details overleaf, and advise you of alternative arrangements.

8. Agreement

Your continuing instructions will amount to your continuing acceptance of these Terms of Business.

Any waiver or variation of these Terms is binding in honour only unless:

- made (or recorded) in writing;
- signed by one of our Directors; and
- expressly stating an intention to vary these Terms.

Your instructions will not create any right enforceable (by virtue of the Contracts Rights of Third Parties Act 1999) by any person not identified as our client.

If any of these terms are unenforceable as drafted:-

- it will not affect the enforceability of any other of these Terms; and
- if it would be enforceable if amended, it will be treated as so amended.

Nothing in these Terms restricts or limits our liability for death or personal injury.

English law is applicable to any contract made under these Terms. The English and Welsh Courts have non-exclusive jurisdiction.
